Sweaters

Sweater items exported from Bangladesh include various knitted apparel like pullovers, cardigans, and other sweater-style garments made from materials like cotton, man-made fibers, wool, or hair.

Sustainability and Ethical Practices

Stylo Fashion Ltd., is committed to integrating sustainability and ethical practices into every aspect of its business operations. As involved in Readymade Garments Industry in long run, the company recognizes its responsibility to adopt environmentally and socially responsible practices while maintaining high standards of quality and customer service. Stylo Fashion Ltd. strives to create long-term value not only for its clients but also for the environment, its employees, and the wider community.

Sustainability Practices

Stylo Fashion Ltd. prioritizes sustainable sourcing by working with suppliers in Bangladesh who use eco-friendly processes, such as water-efficient dyeing and waste minimization. The company focuses on renewable resources, and promotes the use of organic cotton and recycled fibers.

To reduce its environmental impact, Stylo Fashion Ltd. implements waste-reduction strategies like recycling fabric scraps and reducing packaging. It partners with suppliers using closed-loop production systems and optimizes transportation to lower carbon emissions.

Stylo Fashion Ltd. also expands its eco-friendly product offerings readymade garments using Organic cotton, Bamboo fabrics, and Recycled polyester helping clients achieve their sustainability goals by providing materials that meet global environmental standards.

Ethical Business Practices

Stylo Fashion Ltd. is committed to ethical sourcing, partnering with suppliers who follow fair labor standards, including safe working conditions and fair wages, in line with ILO guidelines.

The company promotes employee welfare by ensuring a safe work environment, fair pay, worklife balance, and opportunities for professional growth.

Transparency and accountability are key values, with open communication across all business dealings. Stylo Fashion Ltd. also complies with the highest industry standards, regularly reviewing its operations to meet global regulations on sustainability and corporate social responsibility (CSR). The company actively participates in CSR initiatives that support education, healthcare, and community development in Bangladesh.

Quality Control Process

Quality is at the heart of Stylo Fashion Ltd. operations. The company maintains stringent quality control measures at every stage of its supply chain to ensure that each piece of ready-made garment meets international standards and client specifications. From material sourcing to final inspection, every process is carefully monitored to deliver products that reflect our commitment to excellence, consistency, and customer satisfaction.

Inspection and Testing

Stylo Fashion Ltd follows a 2.5 AQL (Acceptable Quality Limit) quality control system to ensure the highest product standards. Each garment undergoes thorough inspection to identify and correct any defects before delivery to clients.

Throughout the manufacturing process, our quality team closely monitors production stages and performs pre-delivery inspections to maintain consistency and precision. In addition, accessories such as zippers, buttons, and elastics are subjected to rigorous quality checks to guarantee durability, functionality, and aesthetic uniformity.

This comprehensive approach enables Stylo Fashion Ltd to deliver garments that meet international quality benchmarks and exceed customer expectations.

Lab Testing

Stylo Fashion Ltd conducts comprehensive laboratory testing on key fabric properties, including composition, shrinkage, colorfastness, strength, and stretchability. These rigorous tests ensure that every garment meets the functional, aesthetic, and performance standards required by global brands and manufacturers. Through continuous testing and quality validation, the company upholds its commitment to delivering reliable, durable, and premium-quality apparel to its clients worldwide.

Sample Development and Approval

Before bulk production, Stylo Fashion Ltd provides Fit Sample, Size Set Sample and Pre-production Samples to clients for approval. The sampling process includes Gold Seal Sample, which help clients assess color accuracy and consistency. Once the samples are approved, the company proceeds with bulk production, maintaining close communication with clients to ensure their specifications are met.
